

Day Trip to New York City Broadway Play and Dinner June 12, 2010

Two-time Academy Award winner Denzel Washington returns to Broadway, alongside Academy Award nominee and Tony Award winner Viola Davis, in August Wilson's monumental Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award-winning play.

Fences is one of the 10 plays in August Wilson's Pittsburgh Cycle, focusing on the African-American experience in the 20th century. The play centers on Troy Maxson (Washington), a Pittsburgh sanitation worker who once dreamed of a baseball career, but was too old when the major leagues finally admitted black players. As he faces off against the racial barrier at work and his own disappointments, Troy also grapples with his son Cory over the teenager's hope for a football scholarship and with his wife, Rose (Davis), who confronts Troy over a child he has fathered with another woman.

Our day trip to FENCES includes:

- Luxury roundtrip motorcoach transportation, continental breakfast and movies
- Balcony Seats – Cort House Theater – 138 West 48th Street
- Dinner at Dallas BBQ or similar
