

Discover Alaska!
Gateway to America's Last Great Frontier!
Royal Caribbean - Rhapsody of the Seas
Sailing from Seattle, WA (7 nights)
August 15 - 22, 2008

It is often said that Alaska is too big to see and experience in one lifetime, let alone a single vacation. But why not try!!! Reconnect with friends and family as you sail on the Rhapsody of the Seas from Seattle, WA. Surrounded by mountains and water, the greater Seattle area features picture-perfect views and abundant recreational opportunities year-round. As you cruise to Alaska, embark on a trip back in time during a visit to the Juneau Icefield. Located in the Coast Mountain Range, North America's fifth largest icefield blankets over 1,500 square miles of land. It feeds 38 large glaciers, including the Mendenhall. Then we are off to Juneau. Shopping in Juneau is fantastic, and the layout of the city is one of interesting complexity. We will then visit Skagway - a Southeast Alaskan paradise, full of culture and brimming with life. Ride the world-famous White Pass and Yukon Railroad and then visit a historic gold-rush camp, where you can browse through cabins and tents that were once used as a bakery and a saloon. Visit the Valley of the Glaciers, take a train ride and experience the breathtaking panorama of mountains, glaciers, gorges, waterfalls, tunnels, trestles and historic sites from the comfort of vintage-style parlor cars. We will then sail to Tracy Arm Fjord - one of the most dramatic locations in all of North America. Completely protected within the Tongass National Forest, this fjord stretches some 25 miles up into the Coastal Range Mountains and home to Sawyer Glacier. Though it's not as well known as Glacier Bay, some naturalists claim Sawyer Glacier is even more spectacular.

All rates are per person, CRUISE ONLY, and include port charges, government taxes and fees. Add $635 for airfare and transfers from BWI to Seattle, WA (other cities available).
