

It's Carnival Time in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil!

Live the Dream: Join the World Biggest Festival!!

March 3, 2011 - March 9, 2011

Carnival is characterized by Samba music, partying and packed beaches. Each year Rio de Janeiro erupts in an ecstatic fiesta of pulsating music, swirling dancers, and radiant costumes. Tens of thousands of people from all over the world descend upon Rio for festivities lasting four days and four nights. Carnival's main event is a parade that features a contest between escolas de samba (samba clubs). Judged for the best song, rhythm, dancing, and costumes, the competition takes place on the Sambódromo (a stadium specially designed for samba parades). Virtually every neighborhood in Rio has a samba club that practices throughout the year, harboring dreams of glory. Throughout Carnival, many smaller, more spontaneous processions fill the streets of Rio. Anyone can jump in on the end of the many passing bandas (marching bands of brass and percussion) and share in the impulsive celebration. So what are you waiting for Join the World's Largest Party! Don't miss out. Seats are limited, make your reservation today!
