

Discovery of Morocco
From the Imperial Cities to the Sahara
September 11 - 23, 2007

Casablanca, Rabat, Meknes, Fes,
Midelt Erfoud/Merzouga, Ouarzazate, Agadir

Travel in style and luxury in a "safe-to-travel" country full of magic and mystery and unimagined beauty. Experience the exotic and little-known Kingdom of Morocco. Populated by the fierce and indigenous Berbers and conquered by the Arabs 1300 years ago, Morocco is the bridge between Europe and Africa, the gate to Black Africa, a country where Jews and Muslims have flourished side by side for over 1,000 years. Morocco offers you a glimpse at the Sahara desert, its lush oases and earthen architecture. It offers the magnificent Atlas Mountains, the sophisticated Imperial Cities of Marrakech, Rabat, Meknes and especially Fes - often called the world's best example of a living medieval city.

This land of dramatic contrasts invites us to encounter its ancient ruins and sacred mosques, endless desert and storied mountains, imposing kasbahs and spirited souks. As we travel from the imperial cities of Rabat, Fez, and Marrakech to the High Atlas and vast Sahara, we open our eyes, and hearts, to a truly foreign land, an age-old culture, and genuinely hospitable people.

Experience the chaotic markets, relaxing coastal retreats and a hospitality second to none! Morocco serves up a wealth of intrigue that has something for everyone. Lose yourself in the legendary hospitality of the proud local Berbers, indulge in a night of drumming and singing in a nomad tent and revel in the spectacle of the Red City's famed square. Moroccan cuisine is often reputed to be some of the best in the world, with countless dishes and variations proudly bearing the country's colonial and Arabic influences.
